

Attention Young Birdwatchers!

The Kansas Ornithological Society is hosting their first K.O.S. Youth Program in conjunction with the annual fall K.O.S. meeting, taking place in Topeka this September.

Want to learn more about bird-watching or sharpen your skills? We will provide hiking and birding opportunities, plus bird identification workshops using study skins, photos and nests.

Ages: 12-16

When: Saturday, September 21 from 9am-3pm

Where: Karlyle Woods Nature Area

3440 NW Button Road, Topeka

Cost: FREE & lunch will be provided for youth

Registration Deadline: September 10, 2013
